Active Citizens 2012

A free course for people who want to make change in their communities

Learn how to make a real difference
to your community

Explore identity and dialogue between cultures, meet community activists from Leeds and abroad and work with others to plan and run a social action project - there will be small grants to support these projects. Over 80,000 people in 30 countries have taken part in the Active Citizens course. If you want the skills and confidence to create real change in your community get in touch now: mark@oblongleeds.org.uk, (0113) 2459610 or drop in at the Woodhouse Community Centre, 197 Woodhouse Street, Leeds LS6 2NY. www.oblongleeds.org.uk

Running over four Saturdays from 28th January, followed by mentoring to support setting up community projects. Active Citizens is funded by the British Council and run by Oblong and Together for Peace.
